

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to highly recommend John Evered as it reflects his time working with us at Playmaker Recruiting.

John's professional contributions were significant as he brought his unique perspective and skills to launch our Featured Playmaker campaign. His eye for talent and ability to express his evaluation and perspective were invaluable to launching this project.

Beyond his professional contributions was his rare ability to build genuine connections with everyone he encounters that truly sets him apart as an intern. The scouting world is built on relationships, and John has a natural gift for building them. John has an effortless ability to get along with anyone. He creates an immediate sense of trust and rapport, making him an incredible cultural fit and a bridge-builder within our company.

When first meeting John, he represented LSU with warmth and sincerity that left a positive lasting impression where others at the same event fell short. He is a "glue guy"—the kind of person who makes a team function better simply by being a part of it.

I have no doubt that John's personality, combined with his work ethic, will make him a massive asset to any organization. Please feel free to reach out if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,

Joseph Fischer
